

Nebo School District Board of Education

Policy CA

ADMINISTRATION GOALS

Proper administration of the schools is most vital to a successful educational program. The general purpose of the district's administration shall be to coordinate and supervise, under the policies of the Board, the creation and operation of an environment in which students learn most effectively. Administrative duties and functions should be appraised in terms of the contribution made to improving instruction and learning. The Board shall rely on its chief executive officer, the Superintendent, to provide at the district level the professional administrative leadership demanded by such a far reaching goal.

The district's administrative organization shall be designed so that all divisions and departments of the central office and all schools are part of a single system guided by Board policies which are implemented through the Superintendent. Principals and central office administrators are all expected to administer their units in accordance with Board policy and the Superintendent's rules and procedures. Vision, initiative, resourcefulness, and wise leadership, as well as consideration and concern for staff members, students, parents, and others are essential for effective administration.

Within the concept of an effective total system, it shall be the policy of the Board that ways shall be sought to decentralize administration in order to bring administrative decisions closer to, and more responsive to students and the school community.

The Superintendent, each principal, and all other administrators shall have the authority and responsibility necessary for his or her specific administrative assignment. Each shall likewise be accountable for the effectiveness with which the administrative assignment is carried out. The Board shall be responsible for clearly specifying requirements and expectations of the Superintendent, then holding the Superintendent accountable by evaluating how well those requirements and expectations have been met. In turn, the Superintendent shall be responsible for clearly specifying requirements and expectations for all other administrators, then holding each accountable by evaluating how well requirements and expectations have been met.

Major goals of administration in the district shall be:

1. To manage the district's various departments, units, programs and finances effectively.
2. To provide professional advice and counsel to the Board and to advisory groups established by Board action. Preferably, where feasible, this will be done through reviewing alternatives, analyzing the advantages and disadvantages of each, and recommending a selection from among the alternatives.
3. To implement the management function so as to assure effective learning programs through:
 - (a) providing leadership in keeping abreast of current educational developments;
 - (b) arranging for the staff development necessary for the establishment and operation of programs that meet student needs;

- coordinating cooperative efforts at improvement of learning programs, facilities, equipment, and materials; and
